The American Journal of Comparative Law

Founded in 1952, it is the official journal of the American Society of Comparative Law, publishes quarterly, and is entirely devoted to comparative law – i.e. comparing the laws of one or more nations with those of another or discussing one jurisdiction's law in order for the reader to understand how it might differ from that of their country.

American Journal of Legal History

Founded in 1957, the American Journal of Legal History was the first English-language periodical in the field. While retaining its focus on American legal history, it accommodates the enormous broadening of the intellectual horizon of the discipline over the past decade and is particularly interested in contributions of a comparative, international or transnational nature.

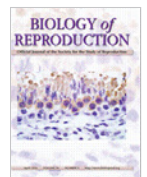

Biological Journal of the Linnean Society

The Biological Journal of the Linnean Society is a direct descendant of the oldest biological journal in the world, which published the epoch-making papers on evolution by Darwin and Wallace. The journal specializes in evolution in the broadest sense and covers all taxonomic groups in all five kingdoms.

Biology of Reproduction

The official journal of the Society for the Study of Reproduction. The journal attracts an international group of authors, with more than half of the submissions coming from outside the US. One of the most highly cited journals publishing original research in the field of reproductive biology.

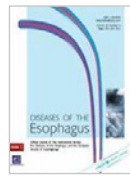

Botanical Journal of the Linnean Society

The Botanical Journal of the Linnean Society publishes original papers on systematic and evolutionary botany and comparative studies of both living and fossil plants.

Diseases of the Esophagus

The premier publication in the field for 30 years (2017 is the 30th volume). This international journal covers all aspects of the esophagus - etiology, investigation and diagnosis, and both medical and surgical treatment.

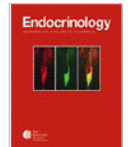

Endocrine Reviews

Endocrine Reviews is ranked in the top 1% of all biomedical journals. Publishing bimonthly comprehensive, authoritative, and timely review articles balancing both experimental and clinical endocrinology themes.

Endocrinology

The flagship basic science journal of the Endocrine Society publishes advances in basic and translational research for the global endocrinology community, providing important insights into endocrine systems and diseases at molecular, biochemical, cellular, genomic, comparative, and organismal levels.

(19 titles)

European Heart Journal - Cardiovascular Pharmacotherapy

The journal publishes the highest quality research, interpreting and integrating new scientific developments within the field of cardiovascular pharmacotherapy. The overarching goal of the journal is to improve the care of patients with cardiovascular disease with a specific focus on cardiovascular pharmacotherapy.

European Heart Journal - Quality of Care and Clinical Outcomes

The Journal publishes high quality, original, electronic health record and prognosis research from the scientific community, focusing on quality of care as it affects cardiovascular outcomes at hospital, regional, national, and international level. It provides a forum for showcasing the best cardiovascular outcomes research to inform cardiovascular public health policy globally.

International Affairs

Founded by and edited at Chatham House, the Royal Institute of International Affairs in London. One of the world's leading journals of international relations and one of the few to cover the entire discipline. Lively and provocative, International Affairs keeps its readers up to date with the latest critical thinking on the key issues shaping today's world.

Journal of Clinical Endocrinology and Metabolism

Named in the Special Library Association's list of the most influential journals of biology and medicine over the last 100 years. The world's leading peer-reviewed journal for endocrine clinical research and cutting-edge clinical practice reviews.

Journal of Crustacean Biology

The Journal of Crustacean Biology is the official journal of The Crustacean Society for the publication of research on any aspect of the biology of Crustacea and other marine arthropods.

Journal of European Economic Association

A leading general economics journal covering all areas of economics, with an international focus. It is ranked by Impact Factor in the top 4% of journals within Economics. It has high-profile, internationally recognised editors and is supported by the largest professional economics association outside of the US.

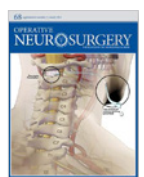

Neurosurgery

Neurosurgery, the official Journal of the Congress of Neurological Surgeons is the most complete window on the contemporary field of neurosurgery. For professionals aware of the rapid pace of developments in the field, Neurosurgery is nothing short of indispensable.

Operative Neurosurgery

Operative Neurosurgery complements the clinical and research studies published in Neurosurgery by featuring technical material that highlights operative procedures, anatomy, instrumentation, devices and technology.

The Humanities Collection

(74 titles)

Oxford University Press has a legacy of being a leading publisher of bibles and dictionaries, so it is little wonder that Oxford Journals has one of the world's best collections of humanities titles. Our Humanities Collection features a wide range of specialized publications in history, philosophy, literature, linguistics, religion, music, and the arts.

Many of our journals are leaders in their fields, and the journal The American Historical Review has now achieved first position in the subject ranking of History. Equally important are our partnerships with many pre-eminent societies, such as the Organization of American Historians, the American Academy of Religion, and the Mind Association, which allow us to publish the latest and most influential research in the humanities.

The OUP Open Access Prepayment Account

The OUP Open Access Prepayment Account allows institutions and funders to deposit funds with OUP which eligible authors can draw upon to pay Article Processing Charges (APCs). Authors can refer charges to account holders for payment via an online process and account holders can review and approve requests through a secure online dashboard, allowing for the efficient management of article charges and easy reporting. If you are interested in finding out more about the OUP Open Access Prepayment Account, please contact us at prepayments@oup.com.
